Subject: Garage Parking

To all Tenants,

Colonial Parking has reported to us that a large majority of the monthly parkers have not posted their permit hangtags in their vehicles and citations were placed on many vehicles today. Going forward, hangtags will be closely monitored. This is a violation and towing may be enforced by Colonial in the near future. Please ensure your current hangtag permit that comes with the monthly invoice, is displayed in your vehicle at all times.

Additionally, Kastle has reported that there is a high number of monthly parkers that frequently have the activity status of 'anti-pass back violation' on their Kastle cards. This can indicate one of two things, folks are either exiting the garage using their card, and then lending their card to someone else to use to exit the garage, or, a monthly parker is pulling a ticket for entry and using their Kastle card to exit. Both are violations. Colonial has recommended that this be closely monitored and reported to them. Any violators will have parking privileges revoked.

Please note that these rules, as well as others, are on the back of the Colonial monthly invoices.

Finally, as many of you are aware, our garage has been filling up in the early morning hours, and some of you have had a hard time finding a space on occasion. If you are a monthly parker you should have a space!! We are actively determining the problem and action to take to resolve this. We may have to put a cap on daily parking.

Colonial Parking and Cousins Properties are endeavoring to provide the best service available to every tenant.

Best Regards,

Veronica Jarrett
